Crime Prevention League

City of Arlington

I pledge to report suspicious activity to 911 when I see it. I pledge not to give money to panhandlers and instead give money to reputable charities that can provide services to those in need. I pledge to join and participate in my local neighborhood watch program...

Arlington, I'm all in.
Are you?

Take the Pledge
at Arlingtonwa.gov/Police

The Problems

- Illegal camping
- Aggressive panhandling
- Illicit drug use

This has led to...

- Increase in crime rates
- Increase of public services: Police, Fire and EMS
- Perception of reduced quality of life for those residing in Arlington and genuine safety concerns

The Goal

The Arlington Police Department has set a goal to close the gap and reduce crime by 30% within the next three years.

Please join them in attaining their goal to make Arlington a safe community by taking the All In Pledge!

Working Together

City Council

- Assist in community outreach
- Ensure we have social services available to citizens within the City
- Enact legislative changes as needed

Police Department

- Operations staff to determine “hot spots” and deploy the City’s ProAct Team
- Educate the public on crime prevention: “You see something, say something approach.”

City Staff

- Support Crime Prevention as a whole throughout the City with proper signage and crime prevention training

Working Together

Citizens

- Call 911: Be the extra set of eyes and ears that our Public Safety Department needs
- “Keep the Change”: Let our City programs and facilities that are established help serve those special clientele
- Attend crime prevention training as it is made available to you
- Join the Arlington Pooch Patrol

Businesses

- Take the time to educate your employees on safety related topics
- Trespass those who are not welcome to return to your place of business
- Be willing to assist in the prosecution of shoplifters
- Paint over any graffiti within 24 hours of being tagged
